Re: Agent Authorization for the Deborah J. Green Revocable Trust

Dear Mr. Hill:

I understand that Placitas Sage Cohousing has applied to Sandoval County for a change in the zoning of the property on which the community will be built. Currently, my Revocable Trust owns part of that land, specifically Lots 83A and 83B. Unlike the other landowners, Leland and Bunny Bowen, neither I, nor my trust, are members of Placitas Sage Cohousing, LLC. Therefore, it is my understanding that I need to state that I wish for Placitas Sage Cohousing, LLC to act as my trust's agent in the zone change and variance application process with the county.

Please consider this letter my authorization (as Trustee of the Deborah J. Green Revocable Trust) that Placitas Sage Cohousing, LLC act as the agent for the Deborah J. Green Revocable Trust in this process. I believe that our Purchase Agreement supports that position as well.

In closing, I also want to state my strong and unequivocal support for the project – as a landowner in the neighborhood, as a professional environmental geologist, and especially as someone who is very much looking forward to being a neighbor of the Placitas Sage Cohousing community.

Please don't hesitate to contact me with any questions you may have. The best ways to reach me are listed below.

Sincerely,

Deborah J. Green
