

PUBLIC NOTICE

Sandoval County is doing it's part to keep our employees safe and in line with social distancing. On March 15, 2020, Gov. Michelle Lujan Grisham announced all state museums, state parks, state historic sites, and cultural institutions are closed until further notice.

Beginning today (March 17, 2020) and until further notice, El Zocalo Visitor Center is closed to walk-in visitor traffic. El Zocalo remains open for booked events, which falls under the exempt size status of 50 or less until April 31, 2020.

For information about El Zocalo or to arrange a tour or book and event please visit our website at: www.elzocaloplaza.com or call 505-867-8687. Our staff remains available and ready to take your calls.

For information about tourism related activities please visit our tourism website at www.seesandoval.org.

The health and well-being of New Mexico residents and travelers is of the utmost importance to the New Mexico Tourism Department. By emphasizing preparedness, the staff at El Zocalo and Sandoval County are working closely with the New Mexico Department of Health, other state agencies, tourism partners throughout New Mexico, and national partners to ensure we promote and encourage healthy, responsible travel.

Governor Michelle Lujan Grisham has declared a state of public health emergency as a result of the novel coronavirus disease (also known as COVID-19).

