Comments:

It's very unfair to treat small businesses differently than big box stores. I've lived here 30 years and feel that our local restaurants become part of our family. Whether the hairdresser or the manicurist or favorite store to shop, these small businesses are usually locally owned and operated. Loosen the constraints so everyone goes back to a new normal. As a member of the Rio Rancho Chamber of Commerce and a co-chair of the Nonprofit Alliance, I can attest to the types of services are not being met ... especially mental health
