Comments:

Small businesses are dying on the vine, while BIG BOX corporations are flourishing. We as small business and non/profit owners are willing to abide by guidelines set up by the state, county, and city to maintain safety of our customers. Safety should be in the hands of the public sector. The mandatory shut down has everyone's attention and we are all aware of the consequences. We need to be allowed to make our own decisions about our personal safety and we are ready to get back to work with caution.
