Comments:

I am opposed to all plans to redistrict Sandoval County. Could there be a worse time to do this? What possible need could justify the partisan suspicions, distrust, and animosity that will inevitably result from any change. As an Army Veteran I am dismayed by the internal threats to our democracy and divisions within our country. My belief is that these widespread redistricting efforts are a symptom of the partisan insanity currently rampant in the country. Sandoval county commissioners should find a way to table all such proposals until more rational discussion is possible.
